

"I Call Your Name" by Dave Martin

G Bm C Am D x2 (piano only)

When I'm in need of strength, I call your name.
When I feel joy, I do the same, I call your name.

G Bm C Am D (Band Interlude 1x)
Oh (if no cello)

When I see someone in pain, I call your name.
If I just want to say thanks, I call your name.

Em C Em Cm D
When winds blow and tears flow,
I know there's someone who will hear.
I cry out, and no doubt,
You're always near.

G Bm C Am D
When the sin's not worth the price, I call your name.
And when I think of your sacrifice, I call your name.

Am C G D
At the moment of my birth, as I was welcomed to the earth,
In my first cries as I exclaimed, it was then you called my name.
When I was washed as just a babe, even though I can't explain,
I would never be the same, that was when you called my name.

G Bm C Am D
Oh, I call your name!
Oh, I call your name!

(Piano Solo) x2

Em C Em C D
When winds blow and tears flow,
I know there's someone who will hear.
I cry out, and no doubt,
You're always near.

G Bm C Am D
Oh, I call your name!
Oh, I call your name!
Oh, I call your name!
Oh, I call your name!
